

Listening 2

Kind: captions it's just an amazing play my best friends are here just the view and life you get from Martin is so different it's just an amazing experience that you just don't get anywhere else recommend it sit passively anyone in this fantastic works menu summer camp exchange USA is an opportunity for youth workers University students teachers to come experience life in the US for a short time as a camp counselor I've worked here at took that camp for seven summers they ended up fall in love with camp with the kids with my friends here there are definite perks to the job and you can in the middle of working day in the office go out and just go waterskiing you'll work with youth from age 7 to 17 being a bunk counselor an activity leader and a role model and mentor for American youth at summer camp all throughout the u.s. it's really a way of being able to get a sort different thing on your CV as well so there's some really good career opportunities that you can have this a great thing to talk about so it's actually a way of spending your summer productively but I am really excited that camp exchange USA is reaching out and trying to bring us high-quality skilled lovely good people to add to our family they really have to be a people person first something that really likes to be with their peers as well as the children I got my confidence of of being around kids and actually knowing how much I enjoy being with them it's a salute kind of friendship when you're living together and working together and playing together all summer long in this unique environment I think it's just an incredible bond that just stays with you forever I've still got friends from three years ago that haven't come back to camp I that I am still in touch with now I fell in love at a blink so I travel down America afterwards at the end of your visa you'll have 30 days grace period to travel all throughout the US I'm going to bust in for a few days and then I'm heading up to Florida so I've come to Disney World for a little bit it's just everything about it it's a really happy place to be you are good kids we get impaired to have fun those if you getting prepared to come over hang out with your friends do all these activities and have fun it really is the best experience and the best thing I've ever done you ask why why would someone do I ask why wouldn't someone do it really